The Kirksville Area Chamber of Commerce Business Spotlight

Congratulations, Wes Roper for signing up for the Chamber's Constant Contact mailing list for our 100 Year Anniversary and winning a $25.00 Kirk$ville Ca$h check along with having Smith Moore and Company being featured on this month's Newsletter.

Providing financial advice since 1913

Founded in St. Louis in 1913, Smith Moore has become known for our unwavering commitment to exceptional client service and dedication to results. By practicing sound, Midwestern values, we have been able to survive both the good and tumultuous markets of the last century. Today, Smith Moore thrives as a financially strong boutique firm with offices in Missouri, Illinois, and Kansas.

At the heart of who we are, you'll find our highly experienced financial advisors, each supported by a culture that promotes peak performance. Every Smith Moore financial advisor has access to advanced technology and a wide variety of quality investment products and services. Locally Smith Moore is represented by Wes Roper and Rick Riley. Simply put, we build relationships with our clients allowing us to offer incredibly personalized services that deliver results. Contrary to the typical Wall Street financial advisory experience, we get to know you. Wes and Rick take the time to listen to your goals and objectives, and only then, do they develop a customized strategy for your specific needs – by accessing only the best financial planning and investment resources available.

By establishing relationships based on clear communication, respect, and integrity, our clients know they have a trusted advisor looking out for their financial interests during all phases of their lives. Like many financial management firms, we offer investment and service options. The Smith Moore difference, however, is the way our financial advisors serve as guides and access these resources to create customized financial plans for the individual needs of our clients. The end result is that we can help you make the most of your assets, allowing you to enjoy your lifestyle both today and tomorrow.
